The Last Clarion House

Clarion House and Clapham Film Unit invite you to be part of telling the story of The Last Clarion House.

We will be training volunteers to record oral histories, research in local archives and be part of making a documentary, exhibition and updated booklet telling the story of this wonderful place.

Training dates :

Sunday 18th June 11a.m Oral History training with Andrew Schofield at Clarion House

Thursday 6th July 1pm Archive training with Alison Ronan and Keri Nicholson at Lancashire Archives, Preston

Sunday 2nd July reminiscence sessions at Clarion House Family Day.
Bring your memories and photos.....

Date to be confirmed :

Local history walk exploring the industrial heritage of the Clarion House environment with Anita Burrows

Transport and refreshments provided

For more details please contact Sue Nike 01282 692122
or email claphamfilmunit@live.com

Screening and exhibition to be at Clarion House, Nelson Library, Lancashire Archives. Oral histories to be kept at Lancashire Archives.

Documentary and booklet will be freely available online at claphamfilmunit.com

Funded by the players of the National Lottery through the Heritage Lottery Fund

Clapham Film Unit

heritage lottery fund
LOTTERY FUNDED